1st of May alongside the peoples and against all wars

The war that Putin has unleashed against the Ukrainian population and the arrogance of the NATO which fuels it further, have forced millions of people to flee while others die under the bombing. It is a scene we know well being an association of people from so many parts of the world which knows well what war means.

For us, being alongside the Ukrainian people means also being solidary with the victims of the many wars in the world which are unfortunately forgotten. From Yemen, to Syria, from Kashmir to Sudan, from Afghanistan to central Africa, our life is threatened by wars and frightening conflicts.

On this 1st of May we want to unite as brothers and sisters within humanity to say enough to the war in Ukraine and to all the wars in the world.

We fight for humane welcoming for all refugees and immigrants and we denounce the false state hospitality which creates divisions, discrimination and conflicts putting people who have the same rights against each other.

No trust upon state governments: they are born out of war and launch it to defend their borders, killing women, men and children. We have hope in the people who choose to unite humanely to be able to live-well in peace.

- Against the war in Ukraine and against all wars in the world
- No to Putin, No to NATO, No to all the powerful who attack human lives
- Humane welcoming for all refugees and immigrants
- Freedom of movement, work, dignity and rights for everyone
